Research Topic Survey Christmas Tree Promotion Board Please respond by April 1, 2021

Please take time to answer the four questions below. Your input on the direction of CTPB funded research is valuable and appreciated. Email to: research@christmastreepromotionboard.org

Name
Company Name	State
Best Contact method
 Please provide the names of university extension agents, spe find to be a valuable resource for Christmas tree production in that CTPB Research Grant Proposal information gets to all in 	nformation. (This information will insure
2. What is the most important insect issue impacting Christmas adequate control for this insect in your management plan? D appearance, or restrict ability to ship finished trees, or both?
3. Which disease has the greatest impact on your Christmas tre for this disease in your management plan? Does this disease restrict ability to ship finished trees, or both?
4. What other issues should be addressed through Christmas T Please be as specific as possible. (Some general ideas to sta control, weed control, bio-pesticides, tree species for Christm issues, post-harvest needle-loss or other display issues, envi	art with: soil fertility, compaction, erosion has tree production, seedling survival